Dear Mr. Tobias,

On December 10, 2018, the U.S. Department of the Interior, Office of the Solicitor, received your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request. In your request, you specifically ask for:

"Any and all written or electronic communications, including text messages, meeting notes and/or email attachments, sent or received by Daniel Jorjani and/or his executive staff concerning Secretarial Order 3371. This request seeks records produced since August 1, 2018."

In response to your letter, the Office of the Solicitor searched its records and found 5 pages of records responsive to your request. Upon review, all 5 pages have been released to you in full. Please find the documents attached.

This concludes the Office of the Solicitor's response to your request. The fee incurred in responding to your request is less than $50 and is not being charged in accordance with 43 CFR 2.16(b)(2).

If you consider this response to be a denial of your request, you may appeal this response to the Department's FOIA Appeals Officer. If you choose to appeal, the FOIA Appeals Officer must receive your FOIA appeal no later than 90 workdays from the date of this letter. Appeals arriving or delivered after 5 p.m. Eastern Time, Monday through Friday, will be deemed received on the next workday. Your appeal must be in writing and addressed to:
